California Cattle Trail.

From the Tucson Citizen. Saturday last a number of prominent cattlemen met in this city and perfected a temporary organization. Further meetings will be held Saturday, this week and also on the 10th inst.

Among other objects of the new asso ciation will be to arrange for the driving of cattle to California, which it is the general opinion of cattle men. can be lone via the trail taken by W. L. Vail last spring, at a cost of not more than $1 per head. Already $10,000 has been subscribed for the purpose of locating wells along the route and constructing a ferry boat on the Colorado river Owing to the heavy rains of the present year the necessity of wells will not im-mediately arise, but the money will re-main in the hands of the treasurer for any contingency. The organization starts out suffi-
